

YOU can help!

Contribute to the Nebraska FBLA Foundation Trust!

National Leadership Conference participation can cost each student between $750 and $1,000.

When investing in the Foundation, your tax-deductible contribution supports FBLA members in their conference and leadership development activities. Your contribution continues to give because only the interest earned will be used to support the Foundation's goals.

Foundation Purpose

The Nebraska Future Business Leaders of America (FBLA) Foundation Trust is a not-for-profit, volunteer-based endowed trust with the purpose of supporting the financial needs of Nebraska FBLA members.

The Foundation serves Nebraska FBLA members by providing support for:

- Stipends to assist Nebraska FBLA competitors to attend the National Leadership Conference
- Leadership development activities for Nebraska students involved in FBLA activities
- Student scholarships

FBLA: Making a Difference

Nebraska FBLA prepares students for leadership and career opportunities. It is the largest student business organization in Nebraska. Offering innovative leadership and career development programs, FBLA brings students and business together in a positive working relationship.

FBLA provides members with opportunities for:

- Leadership development
- Career development
- Competition
- Networking
- School and community service
- Recognition
- Conferences

FBLA Leadership

To develop leadership skills, FBLA members participate in a variety of leadership development activities. At the local level, FBLA members serve as chapter officers, participate on committees and network with business professionals. At conferences, students attend leadership workshops and participate in competitive events. At state and national conferences, students attend leadership workshops and participate in competitive events.

FBLA Goals

Foundation support comes from anyone interested in business and promoting the nine goals of FBLA.

- Promote competent, aggressive business leadership
- Strengthen student self-confidence
- Understand American business enterprise
- Improve community service
- Develop character and promote patriotism
- Promote sound financial management
- Encourage scholarship
- Establish career goals
- Facilitate transition from school to work
