

Former FBLA Members Speak Out!

Thomas Reeves

Ameritas Life Insurance Corporation

FBLA provided me with carefully laid blocks of project management, preparing agendas, leading meetings and learning the practices of business that have continually added to my success. I approach all endeavors with enthusiasm and confidence, knowing that I was afforded the opportunity to develop and hone my abilities, strengths and talents in FBLA.

Angela Schneider

Encore School of Dance and Gymnastics

My experience in FBLA gave me the courage and knowledge to start my own business. To get my business underway and to obtain a bank loan, I used the business plan made in FBLA as an outline for my business. The ties I developed in the community through FBLA have been a huge asset to my business and my life.

FBLA—Making a Difference!

Nebraska Future Business Leaders of America (FBLA) provides innovative leadership and career development programs for students interested in business administration, management, finance and information technology careers. It is the largest student business organization in Nebraska with over 5,300 members in more than 135 secondary and middle schools; nationally, FBLA has over 230,000 members.

Who Can Join FBLA?

Students in grades 7-12 who have taken or are currently enrolled in a business or information technology course are eligible to join FBLA. Students in grades 6-8 who have taken or are currently enrolled in a business or information technology course are eligible to join the FBLA middle level division.

Leadership Opportunities!

Learn to lead through FBLA's multi-level leadership program. Coordinate chapter projects and activities. Serve as a chapter, state, regional or national officer.

Career Development!

Gain experience and knowledge by working with local businesses, community leaders and the public. Enhance your career goals through workshops, conferences, speakers and business tours.

Competition!

Participate in over 60 individual, team and chapter competitive events. Check out the competitions in business administration and management, finance, marketing and information technology.

Networking!

Make connections with business professionals and community leaders. Preserve connections by using FBLA's state and national social media outlets. Form nationwide friendships with FBLA members that will last a lifetime.

Community Involvement!

Make a difference by giving to your schools and communities through FBLA's service opportunities. Nebraska FBLA members contribute 40,000 service hours annually to their communities. Contribute to the Go Green Challenge by collaborating with other career student organizations on environmental projects. Join members across the state volunteering for our national partner, the March of Dimes.

Recognition!

Become an All-State Quality Member, receive the Who's Who in Nebraska FBLA award, earn the America Level of the Business Achievement Awards or win a scholarship.

Conferences!

Travel the state and nation to exciting leadership conferences.
