

Outstanding Local Reporter Award

Deadline : MARCH 1

Overview

This award is designed to recognize a chapter reporter for outstanding reporting at the local level. One reporter will be selected by the State Reporter as the recipient for the Outstanding Local Reporter Award and will be recognized at the State Leadership Conference.

Eligibility

Each chapter is eligible to submit one (1) entry.

Guidelines

- The applicant must complete the Outstanding Local Reporter Application Form.
- The applicant must include all of his/her FBLA work that has been submitted for publication from March 1 of the previous year to February 28 of the current year.

Deadline

Postmarked by March 1.

Mail to

Nebraska FBLA State Reporter at the address provided on the entry form on the following page.

Judging

Selection will be made by the current State Reporter.

Award

Plaque

Outstanding Local Reporter Application Form

Please attach to this form all of the FBLA work you have submitted for publication this year. Send your completed application by March 1 to:

Nebraska FBLA State Reporter
reporter@nebraskafbla.org

Name _____
 First Middle Initial Last

Grade _____ Years in FBLA _____

School Address & ZIP Code _____

School Phone _____
 Area Code

List your participation in FBLA this year including all conferences attended, committees served, positions held, etc.

Why, in your words, do you feel that you should be nominated for this award?

Explain one of your chapter’s most successful projects and how you were involved.

How have your reporting abilities contributed to your chapter’s success?

