

Nebraska FBLA Executive Committees

A brand new leadership opportunity open to all members!

Members can now apply to be a part of committees focussed on promoting the benefits of FBLA. Three committees (Service, Education, Progress) will include four positions, each with the goal of creating media elements promoting the core principles of FBLA. Selected committee members will have the opportunity to work with the State Officer Team while using their skills to grow Nebraska FBLA!

Committee Goals

Service - Chaired by Drake Vorderstrasse & Bryan Zutavern

Grow the awareness of FBLA's service partners and inspire chapters with project ideas.

Education - Chaired by Kirk Rangel & Olivia Sis

Create an understanding of financial education and career readiness for the membership.

Progress - Chaired by Alek Timm & Morgan Mills

Assist chapters in recruitment strategies and increase involvement in state programs.

Committee Positions

Executive Assistant - Aid committee members in creation of content and any other tasks.

Media Director - Responsible for creating graphics and designs for usage on social media.

Communications Director - Create messages for chapter reminders and social media posts.

Productions Director - Develop videos and broadcasts for usage in promoting programs.
