Business of the Year

Deadline: JANUARY 15

Overview

This event recognizes one successful Nebraska business as an outstanding business.

Eligibility

Each local chapter may nominate one business.

Guidelines

Chapters should nominate a business rather than an individual businessperson for this award.

The nomination (written by the chapter members) should be no longer than two (2) typed pages in report format plus a cover letter from the chapter officers.

The following criteria should be included in the nomination:

- Business contact information: name, mailing address, email address, phone number
- Business history, including mission statement and employment levels
- Business growth and success
- Economic impact
- Community service and involvement
- Support and assistance to education
- Conclusion attesting to the support of the nominee from the FBLA chapter

The professional appearance of the application written by the chapter, as well as the content, will be considered in the judging. (See rating sheet.)

Chapters are encouraged to renominate a business that was not selected from the previous year.

Submit Nominations Online

Submit to: <https://form.jotform.com/nebraskafbla/businessoftheyear>

Judging

Entries will be judged by the Nebraska FBLA Advisory Council.

Awards

The Business of the Year award will be presented to a company representative at one of the general sessions of the State Leadership Conference.

National Entry

There is no national event for the Business of the Year award.

Businessperson of the Year

Deadline: FEBRUARY 14

Overview

This event recognizes outstanding businesspersons from the private business sector throughout Nebraska who have contributed to the success of FBLA at the local level.

Eligibility

Each local chapter may nominate one person for Businessperson of the Year.

Criteria

- Local chapters should consider the following criteria when selecting a nominee:
- Years of participation in FBLA activities.
- Promotion of FBLA through speeches, seminars, contributions, and sponsorship of activities.
- Extent of active interest in FBLA chapter and related activities.
- Financial assistance to local and/or state chapters.
- Community service through civic and social organizations, etc.
- Personal achievements in business and industry.

Guidelines

- Resumes of the Businessperson of the Year should include personal data, extent of participation in FBLA activities, service to the community, interest in business students and the profession, and financial support (if applicable) to local and/or state FBLA chapters.
- Persons who are full time employees of any educational institutions or departments of education shall not be nominated for this award. Such nominations will be disqualified.
- Nominees must not have been named to this event at a previous State Leadership Conference.
- The entry form from the Nebraska FBLA website and the nominee's resume must be submitted to Nebraska FBLA.
- The Businessperson of the Year nominee from each local chapter should be present to receive recognition as a State Businessperson of the Year at the Awards Program of the State Leadership Conference.

Submit Nominations Online
